

Friday, March 06, 2015 4:39 PM

Fund Administrator and General Counsel to Retire, Trustees Begin Nationwide Search for Successor

FAIRFAX, VA, March 6, 2015 - Marc LeBlanc, who has served as both Fund Administrator and General Counsel of the Sheet Metal Workers' National Pension Fund will retire in June 2015. Mr. LeBlanc has worked for the Fund for thirty-two years.

Board of Trustees' Chairman Joseph J. Sellers and Co-Chairman Ronald Palmerick issued the following statement on behalf of the Board:

Marc has led the Fund through major challenges for over three decades with a combination of technical knowledge, hard work, and commitment to retirement security. He and his team have worked tirelessly to preserve the Fund for generations of sheet metal workers and their families. The Trustees are conducting an exhaustive search for a successor who possesses the qualifications and experience to assist the Trustees in continuously improving the Fund.

The Board of Trustees has launched a nationwide search for an Executive Director to succeed Mr. LeBlanc with the assistance of Korn Ferry International, a national executive recruiting firm.

The National Pension Fund is a Taft-Hartley defined benefit plan, with assets of approximately $4 billion. The Fund has over 130,000 participants across the nation. It is headquartered in Fairfax, Virginia outside of Washington, DC. www.smwnpf.org